"UNCLE JOE" IS BOILING OVER*He Cuts Loose at Bloomington in Reply to His Enemies.*HANDS OUT SOME HOT SHOT*Denies Deal With Tammany, Roasts Cummings and LaFollette, and Puts Herman Ridder on the Grill—Began Talking After Midnight.

United Press Telegram.
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 12.—
"Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the House of Representatives upon whom an aggressive fight is being made, is foregoing his flight. He began talking here after midnight last night and handed out a few compliments in his own vehement manner towards his enemies. He put his compliments to all of them in no uncertain terms.
"Uncle Joe" is a loud and made no effort to check his words. Those who heard the speaker's address tonight
found enough to interest them long after they should have been asleep.

Herman Ridder, president of the American Publishers Association, was the main object of Cannon's attack.
"Uncle Joe" said Ridder promised him
the support of the leading papers in the country towards his candidacy for the Presidential nomination if he ran through Congress a bill making print free of duty. Cannon said he refused. Then, he said
a denunciation of publishers, with Ridder at its head, went after his scalp.
Cannon made a bitter and scathing
arraignment of Senators Cummings and LaFollette, branding as a lie the accusation that he had obstructed the Littlefield temperance bill.

He said the charge of a deal between himself and Herbert Parsons of New York was false. Cannon was fairly boiling over during his entire speech, much to the delight of his hearers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(Special.)
When shown the statement of Speaker Cannon to effect that he offered the support of the New York papers for the speaker's presidential campaign, in exchange for the removal of the duty on print paper and pulp, Herman Ridder said today:
"It is an absolute lie. How could I pledge him the support of these papers? The man is crazy. The story is both false and ridiculous."

STEINHEIL CARRIED IN FOR LAST ORDEAL*Trembling in Every Limb, She Prepares for End of Famous Case.

United Press Telegram.
PARIS, Nov. 12.—Trembling in every limb, pale and haggard, Mme.
Marguerite Steinheil was almost carried into court today by the guards
for the final trial of her life. Her courageous defiance has given away.
She was attended last night in her cell by a physician and today was almost in a state of total collapse.

The proceedings were interrupted today by the announcement that the foreman of the jury had been taken ill.
A substitute took his place.
Maitre Aubin, representing Mme.
Steinheil, began summarizing for the defense. A distinguished crowd, including Mme. Rejane, the actress, and Henri Bernstein, the dramatist, was present.

It is probable the case will go to the jury this afternoon. Otherwise there will be an extra session Sunday. A scorching threatening Mme. Steinheil to death if acquitted was found tucked to the door of the Steinheil home but it is believed to have been the work of a crank.

FAYETTE MEN LOSEWhen Florida Hotel, Worth $100,000, Burns.

UNIONTOWN, Nov. 12.—Word was received here this morning that the Colonade Hotel at Sea Breeze, Fla., was burned to the ground last night.
The loss is between $90,000 and $100,
000. The hotel was owned by D. J.
Johnson and William Gray of Uniontown.

Mr. Gray will leave tonight for Sea Breeze to investigate. During the past year $75,000 had been spent on improvements. There was some insurance.

Will Lose Foot.

Preston Brooks of Peckah was caught under his tip in the Freepoint
mine and had his right foot run over.
The accident happened this morning.
Brooks was removed to the hospital
here where it was found his foot will have to be amputated.

STATE DISPENSARY.
Open on Wednesdays.

For Tuberculosis in Connellsville
The State tuberculosis dispensary
which has been located in Connellsville
for some months past is doing considerable work in this vicinity.
The dispensary is open on Wednesday
of each week and about 30 patients are being treated. Besides being given free treatment, the patients are also advised as to the necessary sanitary precautions that should be observed as well as ideas concerning ventilation and other hygienic methods.

FOREIGNERS ARRIVING
IN THE COKE REGION*Yesterday 75 Men for Lower Connellsville Region Arrived From New York.

That hundreds of foreigners are arriving daily in the Connellsville coke regions is evident by the crowded passenger trains on all lines. Yesterday afternoon the Southbound Pennsylvania train carried 75 foreigners to the Lower Connellsville coke fields. Everyone had a through ticket and the communicable travelers who have been traveling through the region got a good taste of being crowded out of the smoking car. There was no seating room and many of the foreigners occupied the aisles. Trainers stated that it was the first big consignment that had come through direct from New York, although the number was increasing each day. There were many women in the crowd and the baggage was almost excessive.

Much confusion resulted at Redstone Junction with the new recruits and the conductor and his brakemen have a great deal of trouble in sorting out
those that are to continue on to Uniontown and those who are to be left off for Monongahela and Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston points. As a result of this chaos are delayed almost every day. In the past week, it is estimated by railroad agents that the population of the coke region has been increased by at least 1,000.

TWO HIT BY CAR
ON WEST PENN ROAD*Foreigners Struck Near Standard Works Last Night and Taken to Mt. Pleasant Hospital.

Two foreigners were struck by a southbound West Penn car at Standard, on the Hocla line, shortly after 9 o'clock last night. They were taken to the Mt. Pleasant hospital, although neither was seriously hurt. Both men, it is said, had been drinking.

Motorman King dropped down the grade at Standard under full control
and was slowing down when the men stepped across the tracks. He put on the magnetic brake and brought the car to a standstill as the two men were bowled over.

In falling one of the men got his foot caught between the two wheels of the front truck. In order to avoid running over the man the car was jacked up and he was extricated from his perilous position.

The accident caused a slight delay.
The men will get out of the hospital
within a few days. An investigation showed that they only sustained bad bruises. One had a slight scalp wound.

WANDERS THROUGH OLD
WORKINGS; MIND GONE*Charles Rodgers Had Been Missing Since Last Tuesday at Walton Mine.

United Press Telegram.
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 12.—After wandering about without food or water in an abandoned working of the new Walton mine near West Elizabeth,
Charles Rodgers, aged 40, was found today by searchers. He has used an abandoned section for making a short cut to home. When he disappeared Tuesday an unavailing search was made.

Today the miners heard strange utterances and investigated. They found Rodgers unconscious and rushed him to the surface. Rodgers has entirely lost his mind.

ROBERT LOWRY KILLED.Was Bell Boy in the Palmer Mine at Ada.

UNIONTOWN, Nov. 12.—Robert
Lowry, aged 16, was killed in the Palmer mine, at Ada last evening. He was employed as a bell boy and left his out to talk to two miners. The roof collapsed and he was instantly killed.

SUES DOCTOR AND COKE COMPANY.*W. N. McNaughton Wants $30,000 as Balm for Broken Arm.*SENSATIONAL DIVORCE SUIT*Point Marion Man Makes Accusations Against Wife and Names Some of Those Alleged to Be Implicated in the Affair.

UNIONTOWN, Nov. 12.—William
M. McNaughton has entered two suits of $15,000 each in the county courts,
seeking damages from Dr. Alfred C.
Smith, a Brownsville physician, and the People's Coal Company. Negligence is charged in both actions.
McNaughton was employed as a mule driver in the Pike mine, near Brownsville, and sustained a broken arm in an accident. He went to Dr.
Smith, he avers, and had the injury attended to. Later it became necessary for him to go to Mercy hospital
in Pittsburgh and have the bones bound together with wire. McNaughton alleges that had the injury been properly treated, his arm would have mended.

The plaintiff also accuses the coal company with negligence and wants $15,000 from it. He says no danger sign was posted at the junction of two tracks, and that was the spot
where he sustained his injury.

A sensational divorce case was filed yesterday afternoon. Point Marion parties being the participants. August Jennart is seeking separation from Ellen Jennart, his wife, charging infidelity. Jennart, in his libel, says his wife was "on terms too familiar for a lady with other men." He refers to a tip she is alleged to have made to Baltimore with Dr. M. E. —, and names "Kolly," Wolfe
of Morgantown, and McClellan of Point Marion as correspondents.

Arguments were concluded yesterday in the suit of John A. Hebb against the Hobbs Coke Drawing Company. Hebb instituted equity proceedings to get certain shares of stock to which he claims to be entitled.
W. H. Leamon has instituted eject-ment proceedings against James and Sarah O'Brien to oust them from a piece of land in Stewart township.
He also wants to collect $150 from James O'Brien on a note.

RAILROAD MEN ARRESTED IN DAWSON BOROUGH*Six B. & O. Engineers Pay Fines for Exceeding the Speed Limit.

Six Baltimore & Ohio railroad men were arraigned before Burgess Clarence McGill this morning, charged with exceeding the speed limit in the borough of Dawson. The speed limit fixed by the Dawson borough authorities is eight miles an hour.

The men protested against being fined and officials representing the company were also present at the hearing, but fines were imposed nevertheless and paid.

The long stretch of track through the borough makes good running possible and some of the citizens have complained of the speed of trains through town. It is hinted by the railroad people that retaliatory measures will be taken in the passenger service
given to the town in the making up of the fall schedule.

MARKLEYSBURG HOTEL
IS DAMAGED BY FIRE*A Bucket Brigade Saves the Mountain
City House—Loss is Over $4,000.

The Mountain City hotel at Markleysburg, conducted by Mrs. Conway, caught fire Thursday night on the third floor and for a time it was feared
the building would be destroyed.

A bucket brigade was formed and succeeded in confining the flames to the floor where they originated. Considerable damage was done by water.
The $4,000 insurance will cover the loss by fire but not the damage to the furniture and equipment.

OLD TRAINING SERVES
KEPHART AS CHAUFFEUR*In Big Packard Car Clerk of Senate Goes into the Ditch, But Sticks to His Post.

H. M. Kephart, Chief Clerk of the State Senate, banker and politician,
brought his old training as a locomotive engineer into service yesterday afternoon and perhaps saved the life of State Senator W. E. Crow and Tony Bufano, who were in Kephart's big 40 horse power Packard automobile when it skidded over a 15 foot
cinder bank at Chevy's coke works.

Sensor Crow was calling Kephart's attention to a stretch of road that should get a State appropriation for improvement. The stretch they were riding along was Rind's road, but another place some distance back, needed attention. Just then the big Packard jumped sideways and headed for the edge of the bank. Crow and Bu-fano tumbled as the machine slipped down over the cinders.

By that time Kephart had checked
the auto, dimming its speed and neither of the other occupants was hurt. Kephart was still in the automobile when it came to a stop at the bottom of the ditch. He said his old instinct not to desert his post, learned
so well as a locomotive engineer, came back to him in an instant when danger threatened.

AGED POLL PARROT
GIVES UP THE GHOST*Had Been in Family of A. B. Morton on South Side for Over 33 Years.

At the age of about 33 years "Polly,"
a poll parrot which has been in A. B.
Morton's possession for at least 33
years, died Thursday at the Morton
home on South Pittsburg street.
Polly was a great favorite with Mr.
Morton and he took her death very keenly. On his entrance to the dining room in the morning Polly would always greet him and would sit on the aged man's shoulders for hours.

The bird was purchased about 33 years ago by Mr. Morton from a wandering street vendor. At that time
Mr. Morton was in business where J.
R. Davidson's grocery store is now located. The bird has been in his possession ever since.

She was dearly loved by Mr. Morton and was prized very highly. She will not only be missed by Mr. Morton but by the other members of the household as well. Polly was a fluent talker and her bird-like chatter
could be heard at times by many residents of the South Side.

BREWERS PREPARE
TO PUT UP BATTLE*Lawyers Will Argue Big Case Before
Attorney General at Harrisburg
Next Week.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 12.—Representatives of 10 Western Pennsylvania breweries being seriously injured yesterday afternoon to outline a plan of defense in the proceedings to be heard before Attorney General J.
Hampton Todd at Harrisburg November 19. Some time ago the attorney general decided that the breweries could not, under their charters, manufacture ice and give it away or sell it, and proceedings were started at once to enjoin the breweries.

At the meeting the brewery men decided to oppose the attorney general's decision. Attorneys representing them will appear before the attorney general on the date set and make the arguments. The brewers maintain that they have the right to manufacture ice and give it away, if not to sell it.

ENORMOUS DAMAGE

Have Caused Tremendous Loss.

United Press Telegram.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Reports of enormous damage by floods, hurricane and earth tremors continue to arrive from the West Indies. Hundreds of thousands of dollars of property have been destroyed.
The death list will probably be very large on complete return of details.
Haiti, where a violent earth disturbance has been reported and San Domingo were caught in the brunt of the

HOBBO RAIDS MR.
TAFT'S BREAKFAST.*Locks Himself in Kitchen of Private Car But Is Discovered.COLLAPSED AT TAFT SMILE"Hully Gee" He Mumbled When Discovered by Distinguished American and Loses Half of a Delicious New England Pie in Excitement.

United Press Telegram.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—"Hully
gee, your horses to a star" is a time worn joke, but there is a certain hobbo, name unknown, who certainly aimed high enough during the night in his efforts to secure a five foot. Being hungry did not drive him to pounding back doors, with keen eyes searching for the mystic symbols of the tatterdemalions indicating "Kind lady, no dog."

This hobbo was an aristocrat in his profession. He picked out a nice appearing, private car, which was tied up for a few minutes in one of the yards of the Pennsylvania railroad.
Entrance proved easy. Finding the kitchen, Mr. Taft entered and locked the door behind him.

The car happened to be that occupied by President Taft. Soon after dawn, when the stewards were aroused and began preparations for the morning repast of the Chief executive, they were denied access to the culinary department. "This was suspicious," Secret Service officers were summoned, and after repeated
poundings, which disturbed the rest of the President and caused him to join the puzzled group before the kitchen door, the portal was opened.

"What you guys want," he demanded. Then he saw the famous Taft smile and recognized it. "Hully gee,"
was the exclamation that resulted as a mouthful of delicious New England pie spluttered to the floor. He stood,
a grimy, bewhiskered individual, too amazed for further utterance. The loaf of bread he held in one hand tumbled to the floor, and from the other clattered the carving knife.

"Can you beat that," he muttered,
as a Secret Service man escorted him
to the rear platform and signalled for
the train to stop.
The situation touched the risibil-ity of the President and he enjoyed a hearty laugh over the situation. He arrived here at 10 o'clock this morning and was one of the first to tell the story.

The tramp boarded the train in the Philadelphia yards, it is believed, as the car was dropped from the train
there in the yards for several minutes, instead of being carried into the Broad street station.

The bursting of the pipe connecting the President's car with the one ahead delayed the train for sometime
but the President was not endangered.

A RICH GAME BAG
BY SCOTSDALE MEN*Invaded Indiana County and Had the Best Sort of Luck—Got 83 Pieces.

A rich haul was made by Scottdale
hunters who invaded Indiana county
this week in Lewis Greer's automobile. The party, composed of Greer,
P. P. McCann, Jacob Kromer and Cash Grin, went to Rochester Mills,
in that county, and hunted for three and a half days. They bagged 83 pieces of game.

When the party returned it brought along 10 rabbits, 3 pheasants, four squirrels and a woodchuck. This is about the best record for this section
during the present season.

NARROW ESCAPE

Mrs. Charles Koontz of McKeesport,
a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Moore of Dawson, had a narrow escape from being seriously injured yesterday afternoon when she fell through a trap door in the Koontz store. Her back was slightly injured. It was rumored in Dawson that her back was broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore received word to the effect that her injuries were only slight and that she was able to be about.

Had Diphtheria.
Miss Annie Halfhill, daughter of
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Halfhill of East
Fairview avenue, is convalescing

BRICK WORK COMPLETEDOn New Catholic Church at Mason-town by Contractor Girard.

Contractor D. F. Girard has completed the brick work on the new Catholic Church at Masontown and the roof is now being put upon the building. It will be an imposing edifice when completed and the congregation and those interested are making every effort to have the dedicatory exercises carried out about Christmas time.

During the past year the Catholic population has been increasing enormously and the need of the church has been growing daily more apparent.

MRS. D. C. FOLTZ HURT
BY FALL ON STREET*Point Where She Fell at Main and Arch Streets is a Dangerous One.

Mrs. D. C. Foltz of Dunbar met with a most painful accident this morning
when she slipped and fell on the large stone near the corner of Main and Arch streets. She received a bad sprain to her right arm and became very ill.

As quickly as possible bystanders
removed her to Dunbar's drug store,
where Dr. H. C. Hoffman dressed her arm, but she became violently ill and was unable to return to her home in Dunbar for some time.

The point at which she fell is a dangerous one, and almost daily mishaps occur there. The pavement is smooth as glass and it is probable that this accident may result in the pavement being roughed. There are a number of similar places in town and several Councilmen are agitating either change in the construction of the walks or that owners be compelled to rough them before the winter months.

WHALE OF A COON SHOT IN MOUNTAINS*Connellsville Hunters Got It in the Vicinity of Roger's Mills
this Week.

"Boone" Pierce, Mike McGahn and James Barnes arrived in Connellsville
yesterday afternoon after a two days'
hunting trip to Roger's Mills, bringing along what the sportsmen of town term the "biggest coon that ever came down the pike." It was a whopper.
In addition to the coon which was the prize, the hunters had 17 rabbits and 12 squirrels. Not a single bird was bagged.

Hunting about Roger's Mills is especially good, but the hunters are so numerous that there is danger of shooting the other. Pierce was especially proud of the coon which is reported to be the biggest one ever shot in the mountains about Roger's Mills.

TICKET OFFICE CHANGES
AT BALTIMORE & OHIO*Frank Christ Goes to Pittsburgh and Edward Barclay of Everson
Comes to Connellsville.

Frank Christ, assistant to B. & O.
Ticket Agent H. L. Douglass for the past two years, has been transferred to the Pittsburgh office as ticket seller
under Agent S. J. Hutchinson.
Christ was appointed assistant agent
here to succeed Ray Shaw, who was also transferred to the Pittsburgh office. His work has been efficient and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his promotion. Edward Barclay of Everson will succeed Christ
here. Barclay has been with the B.
& O. at Everson for the past three years and will take charge of his work here Monday morning.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT

At a meeting of the Directors of the Connellsville Machine & Car Company I. C. Kelley, formerly master mechanic for the H. C. Frick Coke Company, was appointed superintendent of the big shops in the west end of town, succeeding P. H. Enlon, resigned.

Mr. Kelley comes to Connellsville from Blair county where he has been working since he resigned from the Frick company about six months ago.
He was with the Frick company for a number of years and was recognized as an authority in matters of machinery throughout the coke region.

WEST PENN MEN
IN COAL DEAL.*But It Is Alleged It Did Not Turn Out Successfully.*OVER $15,000 IS DROPPED*It Is Alleged and That There is Mourning
Among Quite a Few Who Dropped Their Savings—Deeds and Papers Were Faulty, It Is Said.

There is a noise like $15,000 gone never to return among the clerks and officials of the West Penn Railways Company and the West Penn Electric Company. Quite a few of the better salaried men went into the coal business half a year ago, taking up a tract of coal in West Virginia.

John C. Shaw, it is alleged, went about among the men soliciting that they take up a certain acreage which was represented upon a blue print.
It looked like a good proposition and man in the local West Penn offices and throughout the coke region subscribed up, to almost $15,000. Today there is an investigation on about the matter
and the stockholders are endeavoring to find out where they stand in the deal but the prospects of recovering anything appears to be remote.

W. E. Moore, operating manager, is also on the trail and is gathering up data relative to the coal land. It seems that the blue print was all right and did cover a certain property, but that faulty deeds and unrecorded ones clouded the title. Since Shaw took up the property he has become a voluntary bankrupt and the chance of the investors recovering anything is very remote.

Most of the men who were caught in the deal were clerks, engineers and a few conductors. Their investments were not large, but they represented all their savings. There is an ugly feeling over the business transaction and a goodly number have lost faith in West Virginia coal lands.

The officials of the West Penn are making a rigid investigation into the whole affair and some developments
of a legal nature are expected.

MAKE CONNELLVILLE
THE ELECTRIC CITY*West Penn Will Furnish Light If Chamber of Commerce
Buys the Sign.

Boost Connellsville by means of electricity. That is the proposition illuminating Engineer E. J. Mora of the West Penn Electric Company expects to put up to the Chamber of Commerce in the near future. Mr. Mora suggests that the Chamber of Commerce purchase a big electric sign to be placed in some conspicuous place
where it may be seen by travelers
along the three railroads entering Connellsville. He is also preparing to make a fair proposition.

It is understood that if the Chamber of Commerce will purchase the sign, the West Penn will furnish the electricity free of charge. The matter has not yet been put up to Secretary
Kurtz of the Chamber of Commerce.

An experiment was tried for the first time last night with a new light known as a "flaming arc." It was hung in front of A. B. Kurtz's jewelry store on Main street. The light is of great brilliancy and put the street area to shame.

Mr. Mora has also closed negotiations for a three-decked sign for the Second National Bank and one for the Cunco building on West Main street.

NEW WHOLESALE GROCERY STORE*A Deal for Sale of His Grocery Store
to Roy Sparks is Reported to Be On.

Negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Campbell grocery store on South Pittsburg street to Roy Sparks.
The store was purchased by George W. Campbell from John S. Patterson about a year ago and has been a thriving grocery.

Mr. Campbell, it is said, will become manager of the new wholesale grocery to be established in Connellsville.
The deal for the transfer of the store is scheduled to be closed December 1. An effort will be made to have the wholesale grocery opened in time
to secure a part of the holiday trade.

Smock Child Poisoned.
Annie Stemrock, of Smock, aged 4½ years, ate stramonium, or Jimson
weed berries, and died yesterday morning about 4 o'clock. Two Uniontown physicians were called, but not in time to counteract the poisonous weed.

ANN HOLLIDAY WAS VERY TIRED.

Police Who Arrested Her
Also Said She Was Very Drunk Yesterday.

DISCHARGED BY THE BURGESS

Nearly All of the Offenders This Morning Got Off With a Warning to Leave Town—One Man Charged With Theft of Whiskey.

Ann Holliday of Jintown was a prisoner in police court this morning, having been arrested during the night on a charge of drunkenness. Ann protested that she was awfully tired, but Burgess Evans reminded her that she was not charged with that offense. She said she had been husking corn down in the country.

Burgess Evans gave her 15 minutes to get out of town, but extended the time until half an hour to the woman could get some apples she left at the place she was working yesterday. Charles Williams came here from Pittsburgh last night "seeking employment," and was placed up at a suspicious character. Charles declared he was a laborer, but Burgess Evans failed to find any calloused places beneath the dirt on the prisoner's hands and doubted the statement. Williams drew 48 hours in which to wash up.

Will Robbison, colored, hobbled into the prisoner's box with the aid of a crutch. He was arrested by the Baltimore & Ohio police officers and charged with the larceny of two bottles of whiskey. Will assumed an air of injured innocence when confronted with this charge.

"Me take whiskey? Why, I have a hard enough time getting around sober without taking whiskey. I never did take that stuff."

He was held 48 hours pending an investigation. George West could not give a very coherent story of where he came from or the place he wanted to go. He was given 15 minutes to leave town. H. L. Morahan of Gibson was given 48 hours for being drunk.

Joseph Smith and Jim Saraphsky of Baltimore were arrested for trespassing but said the officer picked them up while on their way to buy tickets to Pittsburgh. Upon being informed that a train left at 9:37 for that city, they hiked for the depot.

BLANKET OF FOG OVER THE COKE REGION

Took Old Sol Several Hours to Dispel
It this Morning—Trains
Late.

One of the thickest fogs of the season enveloped the coke region like a blanket this morning and was not dissipated until the sun was up for several hours. From daylight until almost 9 o'clock, it was impossible to distinguish objects at a distance greater than a few feet. This resulted in a disarrangement of the trolley schedule all cars running at reduced speed for the sake of greater safety.

The railroads were also affected by these conditions, extreme caution being necessitated. Schedule time was maintained, however.

The mercury this morning registered 45 degrees. This was one point higher than yesterday morning. The record last evening was 50. The rain promised by the noon weather forecast again failed to materialize either yesterday or today, while the slump in the temperature was also missing.

WEEK OF PRAYER BY THE Y. M. C. A.

It Will Commence Tomorrow and Will Be Observed at the Association Rooms.

The coming week will be observed all over the world as the Week of Prayer by the Y. M. C. A. in Connellsville there will be services at the Association rooms, each evening except on Wednesday and Friday. The pastors of the different churches will conduct the services.

Tomorrow either in the morning or evening the pastors will also preach a sermon dealing with the Association's Week of Prayer.

CONTRACTORS BEGIN WORK.

Changing Water Course at Church
Place and Pittsburgh Street.

The work of changing the water course at Church Place above Pittsburgh street was started this morning by Harman & Harman. It was the occasion for much rejoicing on the part of the crowd of on-lookers.

The crew of North Pittsburgh street will be completed about December 1. It will take only a short time to lay the track, but a sufficient number has not been received and it is holding the work back.

A social meeting on next Tuesday evening promised to be a busy session. There is much business to transact in all lines.

Wants, for rent, for sale, etc., cost only one cent a word.

BEN HUR LECTURE

And Entertainment at the U. P.
Church Tuesday Evening.

The Home Herald Company of Chicago will give a "Ben Hur" lecture and entertainment in the United Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening, November 16th. The story of "Ben Hur" will be presented, illustrated by over 200 colored stereoscopic views. These slides are said to be the best in the country. Tickets are being sold at 25 cents and every ticket entitles the holder to a ten weeks subscription to the Home Herald (The Ram's Horn), free of charge. This subscription is worth 40 cents alone. Five tickets bought by one family and signed by one person entitles the holder to a year's subscription to this admirable paper. Tickets on sale at Horner's store. Children will be admitted for 15 cents.

THE CONSTIPATION EVIL.

Is Responsible For Most Cases of Piles.

Constipation paralyzes the blood vessels of the lower bowel, and often causes piles. Women, and all other indoor workers, are the most frequent sufferers. But curing constipation alone won't cure piles. A special medicine is needed—internal treatment, to strengthen the flabby veins and start pure blood circulating.

Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid is the only internal cure. Sold under guarantee, $1 at A. A. Clarke's, or Dr. Leonard Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for booklet.

STREET SWEEPING FREQUENT.

Central Portion of Town Got Two Cleanups Last Week.

Street sweeping is more frequent in the central portion of the town than it has been in a long time. The old street sweeper has been resurrected with the result that there was two sweepings last week, and the streets really needed it.

An unusual amount of hauling chased the streets to become filthier than ever. This usual Friday night cleanup took place last night with a beneficial result that was easily recognized this morning.

A NEW BRIDGE

Will Soon Be Ready For Use in Springfield.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Methodist Protestant Church was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Felt on Fayette street. During the business meeting several new members were received. A social hour and refreshments followed.

Gaynor Didn't come a Cent.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Not even the price of a subway ticket or a postage stamp figures in Judge William J. Gaynor's election expenses statement, which he has filed with Secretary of State Kaestle. In fact he spent not a penny toward his election.

Big Shooting Match.

I will hold a shooting match at Perry street car station on the mile south of Dunbar Thanksgiving Day, commencing at 8 A. M. Turkey chickens and geese, Perry McClain.

A DIFFERENT KIND.

Maedon—The couple who are going to take a wedding trip in the groom's automobile will have a nice little reception room fitted up on the ship.

SOCIAL.

Bridge and Five Hundred.

Mrs. L. S. Hyatt was honor guest at a handsome card party at which Mrs. Fenton P. Evans was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on Isabel street. A color scheme of red was effectively carried out in all the appointments. Immense bouquets of red carnations interspersed with asparagus were placed in all the rooms. Festoonings of asparagus also adorned the chandeliers. Four tables were called into play for bridge and five hundred, the games being.

At the close of the games four dainty prizes were awarded. A large out glass berry bowl was awarded to Mrs. Hyatt the honor guest, while sandle wood fans were awarded to Mrs. L. P. Atkinson, the winner at bridge, and Mrs. D. S. Purinton, the winner at five hundred. Mrs. M. T. Norton was awarded the consolation prize. The favors were strawberry shaped bon bon boxes. About 6 o'clock a prettily arranged luncheon was served.

Married at Washington, Pa.

H. A. Rittenhouse of Snook, Pa., and Miss Elizabeth Shaffer of Dunbar were married Thursday at high noon by Rev. James S. Jewell at his residence at Washington, Pa. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rittenhouse left for Washington, D. C., where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return a reception will be held at the home of James Rittenhouse at Snook.

Mr. Rittenhouse is a son of James Rittenhouse, a prominent resident of Snook, while the bride is a daughter of George Shaffer of Dunbar. She is a young lady of accomplishments and is very popular among her young friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rittenhouse are members of the Flatwoods Baptist Church of which Rev. Jewell was formerly pastor. The young couple will reside at Snook.

HANDS CRACKED RAW AND SCALY

Itched and Burned Terribly—Arms
Affected, Too—Could Not Move
Thumbs Without Flesh Cracking
—Sleep and Work Often Impossible—Was Fairly Worn Out.

CUTICURA SOON CURED
HIS FEARFUL ECZEMA

"About a year ago an itching humor began to appear around the back of my head. It started in to spread, and pretty soon it covered both my hands and got up over my wrists and even up to my elbows. The itching and burning were terrible. My hands got all raw and when I scratched, as I was doing a good part of the time, the surface would be covered with blisters and then get raw. The eczema got so bad in around the pit of my thumbs
that I could not move the thumbs without deep cracks appearing. I went to my doctor, but his medicine could only stop the itching and did not seem to help me at all. At last I might suffered so fearfully that I could not sleep, often lying awake until well toward morning, then waking up still tired.
I am a chef and steward by trade and I had to give up my place, as my hands were so terrible to look at that they did not like to have me around about the food. I could not bear to touch them with water, but when I positively had to get my hands clean I would rub
them with oil."

"This sort of business went on for three months and I kept trying zinc and tar ointments and such remedies with no particular benefit. I did not know what to do, for I was fairly worn out. For a long time several friends kept asking me why I didn't use Cuticure and at last I thought I would.
First I got the Cuticura Soap, then Cuticura Ointment and at last Cuticura Resolvent. I put the Cuticura Ointment at night, covering my hands with light cotton gloves. In the morning the inside of the gloves would be lined with scales, sometimes half as long as your finger, leaving nice healed places where the scales had been. In a month I was cured and have kept so now for nine months. My hands and arms are perfectly clear of all traces of eczema and I think I am well rid of it.
Walter H. Miller, 16 Somerset St., Boston, Mass., Sept. 25, 1908."

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world.
Beware of cheap imitations. The name is prominent on the boxes. Mailed Free. Cuticura Book on Skin Diseases.

1800 Howard, 1800. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one devoted disease that science has been able to cure. It is Catarrh, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical profession. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature in doing its work. The people have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CUNNEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Abraham, Wilbur Abraham, James Jackson, and others. The service was held in the cemetery in the presence of a large number of friends.

The funeral of Mrs. Bantz was a most impressive one. The service was held in the cemetery in the presence of a large number of friends.

For some time, Sudden Cold and Coughs no remedy has been discovered so powerful to cure as Perry Davis' Painkiller. As a Liniment it has no equal in curing Rheumatism or Neuralgia, burns and bruises, and wounds of every description. It is the champion of the family and is a household necessity. Only 35c for a big bottle. Three small bottles also 35c and 15c.

THE YOUGH RIVER PORK

The War Department has submitted its recommendations concerning rivers and harbors improvements, and we look in vain for any mention of the Youghiogheny river. The stream was recommended for canalization between McKeesport and West Newton, but it seems that the recommendation or endorsement of a bold engineer of the War Department does not carry with it the approval of his chief or the assurance of an appropriation by Congress.

The McKeesport and West Newton people should maintain their militant attitude and insist upon their representatives at Washington serving their cause with more than passing show. The fight for a resurvey of the river was actively participated in by the Chamber of Commerce of Connelleville ably assisted by Congressman Cooper. Connelleville lost out on the resurvey, but its people hope that the lower end of the river will be improved as proposed at an early date. We wish the project success, but it's not our pork, and our neighbors must not lean too heavily upon us.

The Pork is still in the flax, but it can yet be fished out by experienced and expert Appropriation Anglers like Statesmen Onizell and Huff if they give the job proper skill and patience.

HOW TO REFORM THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The troubles of the Town Council concerning the fire department deserve public sympathy rather than public criticism, though their underlying cause cannot be too severely condemned. Fire departments run naturally to politics, and the Connelleville department has been no exception. Its present troubles are traceable to this fact.

The difficulty will be best solved we think by the adoption of the suggestion made in these columns recently, that the Town Council employ an experienced and competent Fire Chief chosen from the departments of one of the large cities where the business of fighting fires has been reduced to an exact science, give him a free hand in the reorganization of the fire department, place him in absolute charge of the department after its reorganization with power to employ and dismiss firemen without interference from any source whatever, but making him personally responsible to the Town Council for the proper conduct and efficiency of his department.

Such a Fire Chief would command a liberal salary, but he would be a cheap investment for the borough.

ORIGINALITY IN NEWSPAPERS.

"The old spelling bee is coming back into fashion," says the Uniontown Herald; and it adds, "Connelleville newspapers will please take notice."

The Herald has been pleased at times to instruct that the Connelleville newspapers were deficient in orthography because of the discovery of unimportant typographical errors in their columns.

Whatever may be the deficiencies of the Connelleville papers in this regard, it is worthy of note that their editorial pages are at least original. They do not contain any pilfered brilliancy. The quips of the Mad Island editors may be modest and at times muddy, but they are written with the typewriter not with the scissors.

We insist upon originality even if it should at times inadvertently creep into the spelling.

When Borough Engineer Hogg completes his cartilage survey of Connelleville and its ten-mile radius, we will know just where all our blits and "blitters" are.

Connelleville is the center of West Penn operations in the region. As a center, Connelleville has few equals and no superiors.

Jamaica was deluged but not destroyed.

Uniontown proposes to clean up Coon Hollow. Her authorities will have to take off their kid gloves and put on rubber ones if they propose to do the job thoroughly and honestly.

Football doesn't stop for a few broken necks or backs.

The Connelleville coke operators are hastily preparing for bigger business next year. It will doubtless be bigger and better.

Waynesburg's tin plate mill will be started soon. (Greene county has other things besides coal to make her prosperous and populous and eventually Republican.)

The increasing size of the H. & O. pike make it apparent that Connelleville should have no quiver with that it follows a steady and Connelleville has to go further west than people may say and construct railroad officials believe.

Bowdler's skeleton was not of the class variety.

The Vassar girls are getting hyped, and no truly has cut it out of the current.

Stramonium, otherwise known as Jimson weed or jimson weed, has demonstrated its deadly poisonous qualities. Weeds should not be allowed.

ed to grow in towns and villages. The resident should keep them down about his premises and the authorities should remove them from the public thoroughfares.

The forger begins with the pen and usually ends there.

The first new bridge of the new County Commissioners is a model and Springfield township drew the prize.

The Trusts have their uses as well as their abuses. Service pensions never follow employment with small concerns.

Coal syndicates should always be certain that they are buying something. The best evidence of that are the deeds or an abstract of the title certified by a reputable attorney. A blue print is not in evidence of ownership.

Uniontown's case of smallpox does not seem to trouble the patient half as much as it does the authorities.

The fox was on the pumpkin this morning.

Uniontown's authorities insist upon having honest, paying bricks. They don't want any gold bricks.

The corn is losing that husky feeling, and is no longer so much on its ear.

Tammany's candidate for Mayor certifies that he didn't spend a cent, and he was the only man elected. It pays to be honest in politics, sometimes.

ROBS BANK A SECOND TIME.

Boy Desperado Kills Himself When He Is Surrounded.

ASSISTANT CASHIER IS SHOT

Earl Bullock, Age Nineteen, After Robbing Kansas Bank of $800 in October, Returns With Companion and Cuts $1,000 More.

Eudora, Kan., Nov. 12.—Earl Bullock, the nineteen-year-old boy who robbed the state bank of Eudora Oct. 11, returned with a companion, held up the cashier and robbed the bank again. While the robbers were at work Fred Staley, assistant cashier of the Kaw Valley state bank of Eudora, entered the Eudora state bank with the day's clearings. The robbers shot him through the jaw, making a bad wound. Grabbing all the money they could reach, about $1,000, the robbers ran out of the bank door.

Harry Wilson, son of E. E. Wilson, cashier of the bank, was in the room at the time. When the robbers left he ran into a store near by, where there were six or eight men. His cry that robbers were in the bank brought quick action. Guns were handy. Each man grabbed a weapon and started in pursuit.

The two robbers could be seen running toward the hills. The posse took up the chase on the farm of Al Smith. The fugitives were only a short distance ahead. There Bullock's companion, a youth named McKay, threw up his hands in token of surrender. Bullock fled on. Finding the pursuers close on his heels, he turned and fired. Shots were fired.

The shots were wild. Bullock ran again, heading for some timber. As he entered the woods he came face to face with John Miller, who was going toward Eudora. Seeing himself cut off Bullock fired twice at Miller, but missed. Then the robber dodged behind a tree and disappeared.

A few minutes later there was a revolver shot. The posse ran up and found the bandit unconscious with a bullet through his left temple. The ball passed entirely through his head. His recovery is impossible.

A crowd of farmers and townsmen quickly gathered around Monday and began to talk of lynching him. The captors took him and started down the road on the run to keep the crowd from carrying out its threat.

The angry posse pursued. Before the chase had gone far McKay's protectors encountered a motor car from Lawrence carrying two newspapermen. Quickly dismounting the motorists of their car the men put McKay in it and turned the car toward Lawrence. The mob, finding itself distanced, returned to Eudora.

Early in October Bullock was suspected of a theft at Lawrence, Kan. When Deputy Woods went to arrest him he found that Bullock had gone to Eudora. The officer discovered the young man at the Eudora state bank talking with the cashier, E. E. Wilson.

Looked Men in Bank's Vault. An Woods turned to talk to Wilson. Bullock drew a pistol from his pocket and forced the deputy sheriff and the cashier to walk into the bank vault, which Bullock closed after them. Bullock then took $800 and hurried to Lawrence. Two hours after they had been locked up Woods and Wilson were released from the vault.

Woods at once telegraphed to Lawrence of his adventure, and Wilson Pringle, a policeman, was sent to the home of Bullock's mother to see if the young man was there. Bullock had just arrived from Eudora. He met the policeman at the door of his mother's house. A shot from one of the stolen revolvers was Bullock's reply when the officer told him he was under arrest. The bullet struck Pringle in the neck and he died a few hours later.

It was to get money so that he could marry a girl and take her to Kansas City that Bullock robbed the bank at Eudora, according to the belief of the police and others in Lawrence.

CONFESSES TO BIG THEFT

Express Company's Clerk Takes $10,000 Package.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 12.—Harry D. Bowers of this city was arrested last night on the charge of taking a package containing $10,000 belonging to the United States Express company, of which he had been an employee for several years. Bowers has confessed and will appear before Judge Kunkle on Monday for sentence.

Bowers, while on duty, received a message from one of the banks of the city to call for a package of money, to be sent to Baltimore by the express company. The package contained $10,000 in $10 bills and instead of turning it in he kept it for four days and then gave it to a friend to keep for him. He told him it was a Christmas gift for his wife and that he wanted him to hold it for her until the holiday season. The friend opened the package and returned it to the bank. Bowers' arrest followed, and when placed in a cell he broke down and confessed.

Low Strayer Is Given Up By His Bondsmen.

UNIONTOWN, Nov. 12.—Low Strayer was re-arrested last night, when two of his four bondsmen had a bail price issued. Strayer was arrested in Conneltsville on his return from Ohio, by Chief of Police Rottler and was brought to Uniontown by Deputy Sheriff Jesse Borg.

Strayer, who is an insurance agent, was arrested in Ashland, Ohio, July 27, on the charges of forging the names of O. P. Murtel and J. E. Conn of Uniontown, and S. A. Conn and the late D. P. Morgan, of Smithfield, to notes ranging from $100 to $1,000, on the Smithfield National Bank.

Strayer admitted his guilt, but sentence was suspended on condition that he raise the amount secured by the forgeries and return the money. He promised to make good the losses and was released on a $2,000 bond furnished by L. S. Meffinger, J. S. Brown, A. J. Goshorn and Otto Haas.

He disappeared for a time and it was thought that he would jump his bond. When he could not be located Haas and Goshorn asked that he be taken in custody and secured the bail piece.

SEARCH ABANDONED MINE.

Brother Believes the Missing Man Is in Old Workings.

A search for a missing man will be made in the long-abandoned workings of the old Walton coal mine, near West Elizabeth, and it is believed great hazard will be incurred by the hunting party. Afterdark, it is feared, fills the old mine, and the searchers will vanish within the disused pit mouth followed by prayers for their safety.

Mine gases are believed to have caused the death of Charles Rodgers of Clairton, who disappeared from the knowledge of the living last Monday.

BERLIN.

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—An enjoyable social event of the season was that given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Brubaker, at their home on South Third street, to a number of invited guests. The affair is reported a grand success and one of the best social gatherings of the kind yet given. Invitations were issued to about 100 people from town and out of town. During the evening refreshments were served. Cards and games were indulged in until a late hour. Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schrock, Dr. and Mrs. George P. Brubaker, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Colburn, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Kresinger, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Hefley, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Photo, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brubaker, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hefley, Mrs. B. A. McDowell, and J. W. Gardin.

William Kresinger, an employee of the D. & C. railroad, carpenter, spent Sunday with his family in town. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, he died very suddenly at his boarding place Monday evening about 3 o'clock. Mr. Kresinger had been in Berlin Saturday evening and on returning home later complained to friends who were with him of being dizzy. On arriving home a doctor was called and upon examination stated the sickness was not of a serious nature, however, proving fatal later. Deceased was highly respected in the community in which he lived for some time past and at the time of his death was employed at the Sonopac Coal Company's operations at Goodtown, working eight hours a day. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Radcliff, a visitor in town last Monday.

D. B. Hinkley is having his house treated to a new coat of paint. Rev. J. S. Skiles of Cumberland, Md., was a guest at the Johnson home the first of the week.

Owing to a breakdown of the engine on the branch Tuesday forenoon the mail was several hours late. Jacob Zorn was in Uniontown on business the first of the week. J. D. Suter of Meyersdale, was in town Tuesday on business.

A crowd composed of young boys and girls of town enjoyed themselves for several hours Tuesday evening at roller skating at the rink. William Gumbert of Pine Hill, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Harvey Stahl, salesman for the Meyersdale Drilling Company, was in town on business Wednesday.

Clem Wadsworth, a traveling salesman, from Meyersdale, was calling on the trade Wednesday.

Elmer Cober, a prominent South Brothersville township farmer, was here on business this week.

A JACOBS CREEK CHURCH WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Newingham Issue Invitations For Daughter's Marriage.

TAKES PLACE NEAR SCOTSDALE

Conneltsville, Uniontown and Mt. Pleasant Ministers to Speak at Wesley Tea Party—Fog Caused Danger This Morning.

SCOTSDALE, Nov. 12.—For the first time in years Jacobs Creek Methodist Episcopal Church will be the scene of a wedding. The invitations were issued today by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Newingham of near town, for the marriage of their daughter, Viola, and Jacob L. Koser, which will take place at the Jacobs Creek Methodist Episcopal Church near town on Thursday evening, December 2, at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor Rev. Archibald Auld will be the officiating clergyman. The prospective bride and groom are both well known and popular young people of this neighborhood and prominent in church work. Mr. Koser is a son of Charles Koser of Scottdale, and the young couple will live here.

The Wesley Party. The arrangements for the John Wesley tea party which will be given under the auspices of the Epworth League at the First Methodist Episcopal Church next Thursday evening are coming along nicely. Free sale of tickets has been limited to 150 as that is all the tables will accommodate and these tickets are being rapidly sold to the members and friends of the congregation. The program will open with a social session in the parlors of the church after which the people will adjourn to the banquet hall where an English tea will be served. Several out of town ministers will be present to deliver short addresses, among them Rev. R. C. Wolf of Conneltsville, Rev. T. N. Eaton of Mt. Pleasant and Rev. J. B. Risk of Uniontown, all splendid speakers.

A Foggy Morning. For the first time for several days, when there was a season of foggy mornings, the fog was again a visitor this morning, hanging heavily over everything and making it impossible to see across a street. The Pennsylvania railroad and the West Penn. trolley cars were late in consequence and it was dangerous running this morning and called for the greatest care, as was the case for those who were aboard and were in danger of being run over by train, auto, or trolley.

Visited the Engineer. Herman G. Murtz, chairman of the Sewer Committee of the Town Council, was in Conneltsville this forenoon conferring with Borough Engineer L. E. Hogg over the plans of the sewer which is to be built to drain the swampy section at the northeast end of town.

Corn Husking Going On. Frank Chalm of near town was moving his corn husking machine last night, and left home about 8 o'clock with the big machine drawn by a traction engine and bound for the Chalmers town section. The night was dark and the engine and its load made quite a sensation on the road, as it puffed and heaved its way along.

Football This Afternoon. The Saturday carnage by High School material will take place at Ellsworth park at 3:15 today, the opposing teams being the Greensburg High School Reserve and the Scottdale High School kids. It is expected to be a game of singularly possibilities.

Pay Day Comes Again. This is pay day at the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company's two plants here and about 800 men were having their pocketbooks bulged out with money. The pipe mill also has a pay and a lot of people will be on the streets this afternoon and evening contributing their share to the general hostile of the business world of town. Scottdale is rapidly assuming her old time prosperity.

BIBLE CLASS ORGANIZED. By Young Men of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The young men of the Methodist Protestant Church met Wednesday evening and organized an Adult Bible Class. The officers elected were President, Samuel T. Bonford; Vice President, William Murrell; Treasurer, Leigh Douglas; Recording Secretary, B. C. Fair, and Corresponding Secretary, Albert Scaman.

BANQUET AT GREENSBURG. To Mark 50th Anniversary of Medical Society.

Dr. James P. Strickler of Scottdale, Secretary of the Westmoreland Medical Society is issuing invitations for a banquet to be held in the Hotel Rappe in Greensburg on Monday, November 17. The affair is in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the society.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Some Slackening in Demand For Iron and Steel.

New York, Nov. 12.—Dun's Review of Trade says today:

"Further progress in the readjustment of the markets to the higher prices, which are inevitable in a period of big gold production, is reviving industry and active speculation."

"While some slackening of demand is reported in a few departments of iron and steel this is not surprising in view of the recent pace at which consumption has expanded. In other lines, however, greater activity is reflected, and practically all mills find it increasingly difficult to make deliveries. The recent quiet in the structural division has been followed by the appearance of several important contracts and it is estimated that now projects contemplated will call for over 100,000 tons of steel. Buying of rails is well maintained, much of the business extending into next year and orders for bars are conspicuously large. Activity in pig iron is centered in the east, but demand continues brisk in all leading centers."

Artificial Fertilizers Act on Soil As Drugs Do on Human Body.

United Press Telegram

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Artificial fertilizers—phosphates and nitrates chiefly—act upon the soil as drugs upon the human body, according to investigations just completed by the Bureau of Soils of the Department of Agriculture.

Although there are some experiments and some tabulation of results yet to be made, the scientists have gone far enough to evolve a theory that may upset present-day methods of agriculture and incidentally put out of business firms selling artificial fertilizers. The saving to the farmers will be something like three billions annually, it is estimated.

The new theory is based on a series of experiments that have been conducted during the past summer and for several years prior to this season. They tend to show that there are natural agencies at work in the soil that will replenish worn out "soil tissue" just as the worn out tissues of the body in man are replaced by agencies inside. Only in the case of man there is usually a limit to this process, whereas in soils, the scientists have observed some wonderful results from soils long ago abandoned as useless.

The products of the soil are in all

Prominent business and professional men of Atlantic City, N. J., who had paid for membership in a local "Nest" of the National Order of Owls were given a jar today when the national body informed them that no money or other notice had been received that an Atlantic City lodge had been formed. The local organizer has disappeared, and the "Nest" is to be dismantled until they can straighten out the tangle.

GOODMAN'S.

A Quarter of a Century in Business

Handling the same lines of goods in the same town has made the name of Goodman a sort of trade mark that indicates high quality. True to its name, "The Old Reliable" the store of S. M. Goodman is the reliable stand-by for those who desire goods with real merit. Consequently this store has never been compelled to adopt all sorts of catch penny advertising schemes to attract the attention of the unsuspecting. There sometimes happens, however, that an honest merchandising firm is confronted with a proposition where a little ready money scoops in a tremendous bargain. So it happened with this firm.

A few weeks ago a representative of one of the biggest and most reliable manufacturers of clothing in the United States, made us an offer on a vast amount of clothing, nearly $10,000 worth, to be exact just $9,641.35. Twice that sum of money would have been required three months ago to move this great cargo of finely tailored garments. The manufacturers were not exactly hard up but the goods having been made for a Western concern that could not meet pressing obligations, the makers turned the whole lot over to us at considerable less than it cost to make the clothing up.

Now we are going to give the people of this vicinity the advantage of our lucky deal. If we bought the goods at less than actual cost and marked them at the manufacturers selling price, we will be making a handsome profit besides giving you the very highest quality of goods at wholesale prices. That'll mean a saving of SIX OR SEVEN DOLLARS ON A SUIT—suits that are RIGHT UP TO SNUFF and the same kind that you see featured in the big magazines, in fact the name of the makers of these goods is always conspicuous in the leading journals. Besides the standing guarantee of the manufacturers, the personal guarantee of this store stands back of every suit that leaves the place.

SALE STARTS MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15th. DOORS OPEN PROMPTLY AT 9 A. M.

DUCKPIN LEAGUE BUST LAST NIGHT.

There was a regular duckpin carnival on the Temple alley last night when all four teams of the Connellsville Duckpin League got under way. Honors were divided between the Cubs and Tigers, the former winning three straight games from the Athletics and the latter checking up a new mark for team totals. Those daisy Tigers were rolling a few, too, because they had to. The Cubs are crawling up on them. As it was the Topnotchers slipped in one game by exceptional rolling. The Tigers and Topnotchers also rolled off a postponed game, which the Tigers annexed and added to their string.

The regularly scheduled game was that between the Cubs and the Athletics. Captain McClaren and his men were in better form than at any previous time this season, but in spite of that they lost three games in a row. The breaks were with the Cubs, although their lead was very narrow. They had 23 pins to the good at the close of the set. In the first game the Athletics were only three pins behind the Cubs. They were not so fortunate in the second game, losing by 19, while a solitary pin kept them in the final. All the totals were above 300 and there was a general boiling of averages, nearly every man rolling better than he usually does. The score of this set follows:

While the Cubs were benevolently assaulting the Athletics, Captain Warren Wright and Captain Robert Morris led their respective armies in a merry war dance on the other alleys. When the smoke of battle cleared away Captain "Pickles" and his line bolsters of the jungle had swallowed the Topnotchers, giving them but one game of the first series and capturing the tie game that was rolled off.

There was some duckpin rolling in these games. Downs, W. L. Wright, Dechner and Bell all did better than 100 in at least one game, while Schenck led the Topnotchers with 105. Dobbie was the star, spilling 123 and hanging up a new record for high game. But for a bad start in the first game he might have tagged his own high total mark. In the third game the Topnotchers rolled 473 and were the only team to fall below the 500 mark during the evening. The score:

Pittsburg Brewing Showing Last Year
Gross Receipt For Twelve Months
Were $5,324,175, Increase Over Last Year.
Gross Receipts of the Pittsburg Brewing Company for the fiscal year ending October 23, 1909, were $5,324,175 compared with $5,375,648 for 1908 a decrease of $51,473, or about 1.3%.
Owing to a decrease in expenses from $1,286,002 in 1908 to $1,350,240 for the year just ended the net earnings increased from $1,289,647 to $1,475,336, or about 14%. The company has suffered from the poor business conditions that have prevailed and has not recovered as rapidly as expected.
After the payment of the $379,140 interest on the $6,319,000 6% bonds and deducting $369,559 for depreciation, there remains a surplus of $725,107 available for dividends. Out of this the regular 7% on the preferred stock of $6,300,000 amounting to $441,000 was paid, leaving a balance of $284,107 for the $5,000,000 common stock. The regular declaration of 5% was paid, amounting to $250,000. This ratio has been maintained since 1903. These dividends were equal to the entire yearly surplus of $725,107. Likewise in 1908 the entire year's surplus was used for dividends, the same declaration being made as in the last year. That the surplus, for 1908 equaled that of 1909 was due to the fact that, notwithstanding smaller net earnings in 1908 the depreciation account in that year was only $185,397, as compared with $369,559 in 1909.
Following is a table showing the amount available for common dividends, dividends paid on common and the percentage of earnings for the last four years:
Available Amount
For common paid	Surplus Earned
1909, $284,107	$284,107	5.00%
1908, 219,108	219,108	5.00%
1907, 170,119	208,108	$472,308	12.15%
1906, 809,735	208,108	611,027	15.05%
During the four years summarized in the above, 7% was paid on the preferred stock. The total surplus of the company at present is $1,475,334.
At the end of the fiscal year, the working capital was $3,074,177 as compared with $3,280,422 in 1908. An increase of $156,245 in the amount due for merchandise is large responsible for this decrease. However, the present amount is substantial and is probably enough for all needs. The total gross income was $5,324,175 and the net $1,475,336, a ratio of net profit to gross of 27.68%. In 1908 the ratio was 23.13%. The increase over last year is accounted for by the large cut in expenses.

PRINCETON AND YALE

Met on the Gridiron at New Haven Today.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 13.—Staid old New Haven is in a mass of color today for the big football game between Princeton and Yale. Tremendous crowds are in the city, coming from all over the country.

At noon the Princeton team came in from Farmington, where the players have been spending a few days.

CAPT. SEIGLING OF PRINCETON.

In preparation for the big battle. The team was met at the railroad station by a special trolley car and immediately taken to the Yale field.

Both teams are in fine fettle. Some little consternation was caused among Yale followers by an announcement that Captain Coy, star fullback, would be unable to play on account of a recent injury. It was officially given out later, however, that Coy was all right and would start the game.

Yale men are confident of victory and the betting is quite brisk, with Old Eli a favorite at 3 to 2. There is little betting on the score. Yale men are holding off because of the experience of the last two years. Nor is there betting that Princeton will not score, for Yale fears Cunningham's boot.

General Reyes at New York. New York, Nov. 13.—General Bernardo Reyes, for years the strongest rival of General Diaz for the presidency of Mexico and governor of the state of Nuevo Leon until recently, is registered at the Hotel Astor, General Reyes will sail for Europe in the next few days.

THEATRICAL NEWS.

Joe Hertz in "Fritz, the Wandering Musician."

"Fritz, the Wandering Musician." An extraordinary play is "Fritz, the Wandering Musician," the new date of the new production for his theatre, as he felt sure his patrons would be more than disappointed if not given a chance to see this, Hertz latest and said to be best production. In the new play Mr. Hertz will sing for the first time, some new songs, which are said to be more than pleasing, among them being a lullaby, which is said to be the sweetest he has ever composed; a love song which will live in the hearts of his admirers.

Manager Fred Robbins at once set to work to see if he could not obtain a date of the new production for his theatre, as he felt sure his patrons would be more than disappointed if not given a chance to see this, Hertz latest and said to be best production. In the new play Mr. Hertz will sing for the first time, some new songs, which are said to be more than pleasing, among them being a lullaby, which is said to be the sweetest he has ever composed; a love song which will live in the hearts of his admirers.

as did "Nora My Darling", and a novelty in the shape of a flower song. The scenes of the new play are laid in Kentucky, which gives ample opportunity for the display of beautiful scenic effects. With Mr. Hertz will be found his two good and reliable old time favorites "Leo" and "Rex" the acting St. Bernard dogs.

The attraction, booked to appear at the Saison Theatre matinee and night Thursday, Nov. 18, is the successful western play "Billy the Kid" headed by Nolan Kane. The cast and production are complete in every detail and the play from the pen of Walter Wood and Joseph Santley, has proven itself to be the most fascinating of cowboy melodramas. During the past season "Billy the Kid" was seen in nearly every large city in the United States to phenomenal business and return engagements are everywhere in demand.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief. What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable storehouse of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed; Graham & Co., Special Agents.

Attempt Made to Wreck Train.

Mansfield, Mass., Nov. 13.—An attempt was made to wreck a train on the Taunton division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. A pile of railroad ties had been placed on the tracks between here and Norton. A railroad employee discovered the blockade in time to remove it and to warn the engineer of an approaching train.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from itching, burning, blood or protruding piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment, and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. The Battle

Haggleton found Philip in the room an hour later.

"I have had an unpleasant experience," said the son.

"With Jenny Moran?"

"Yes; it was Jenny. I tried to help her."

Haggleton brushed some face powder off Philip's cheek. Philip blushed.

"I see," he said, then resolutely. "She's in love with you."

"Love?" answered Philip, with loathing.

"H'm," mused Haggleton, brushing some more face powder off the lapel

"Don't speak to me."

of Philip's coat. "Next time I would advise you to help some older and homelier female."

Haggleton proceeded to give the young man a little lesson in practical worldly wisdom.

"Nothing has happened, has there?" he asked.

"I took her in my arms. I kissed her."

"It is a little thing."

"Little?" Philip's voice grew bitter.

"If I cannot control myself in little things, how can I control myself in big things? I am engaged to a fine, pure girl. I must tell her, and she will despise me."

Haggleton slowly walked up and down with him.

"Why tell her?" he asked. "She has a right to know anything serious, but this isn't serious. You love her, don't you?"

"Love her? I worship her! Oh!"

"You don't care for this other woman?" persisted Haggleton.

"No! Indeed not!"

"Then you are easy with your conscience. It would be cowardly to tell her. You would simply transfer the regret from your shoulders to hers. It would cause her needless pain. Love is best done in silence when open confession means suffering to others."

"By George, you are right!" exclaimed Philip. "I must not tell her."

He added:

"It is wonderful how you see the best thing to do. I don't know why I speak of it, but I feel a sympathy for you, sir. I used to think you were sort of inhuman, but you've been kind to me, and you have taught me a lot. Sometimes," Philip went on, "I have thought that I have two natures, one from my mother, the other—his face darkened—"from my father."

"What about your father?"

"My father was not a good man, Mr. Haggleton. He—he pretty well broke my mother's heart."

"How do you know that he was cruel to her?"

"But she never said what your father did."

"I never asked. I just grew up with the idea that my life was set apart for a special work. I have a trade for my living, but my real work is to help the poor. But sometimes I feel another thing urging me—a bitter, infernal thing, urging me toward money and—and all that."

Philip's voice was anxious:

"That is why this Jenny affair is so serious. It shows the weakness in me."

Haggleton, seeing his opportunity to strengthen the ultimate position in which the last, the decisive struggle must be fought, grasped it with determination.

"We are all weak, my boy," he said (and how sweet it was to say those two words, "my boy"). "I will show you how weak I am. It isn't entirely to study the problem of poverty that I am down here."

"No?" Philip looked interested.

"Years ago I did something that I regret—something wrong. And—Gentle knows it."

"Gentle?"

"Yes. I am making amends for that wrong now."

Haggleton stopped, getting ready for his final argument.

"You will not try to find out what it is that I did in the past?"

"I certainly won't. It is not for me to judge another man."

"And if Gentle should try to tell you?"

"I won't let him tell me."

CHAPTER XII.

MARGARET AND HAGGLETON.

MARGARET LAWRENCE, meanwhile, was going her way, doing good.

Philip's letters were full, moreover, of admiring praise of this mysterious Mr. Jackson, whom she had vaguely seen that one morning in the Moran home. His letters still were filled with protestations of love, but they were promises also of idleness, of riches, things that she, in her youthful enthusiasm, scorned. Yes, Philip was changing, and not for the better.

It was with happy anticipation, therefore, that she left the "case" which she had successfully nourished back to health and returned to Mrs. Binney's boarding house. She would have time now to take her worldly minded lover in hand and to bring him back to the path of loving service to the poor.

On the doorstep of Mrs. Binney's house she met Gentle, who looked very serious.

"Miss Lawrence," he said rapidly. "Will you find Philip at once? There has been an accident in the river. Atkinson, one of the divers, is caught in a wreck, and he is needed. You will find him at the Morans, talking business to Mr. Jackson, I suppose."

Margaret ran all the way on her mission.

She found Philip in the Morans' room in consultation with Mr. Jackson. The elder man considerably turned, giving them an opportunity for a lovely greeting.

"Philip," she said hastily. "Atkinson has been caught in a wreck. Mr. Gentle sends me to tell you to come at once."

Philip was alert at once. He started for the door.

"Phil," shouted Margaret, running after him, "you are not going into danger?"

"Danger? I am going to get Atkinson out of that wreck."

Haggleton and Margaret looked at each other curiously. They had not met yet and had seen each other only once—on the day of the millionaire's arrival at the tenement, when the two child bondsmen had been taken to the hospital. Haggleton looked at Margaret and approved of her appearance. She looked like a gentlewoman, every inch of her. But what attitude would she take when she came to learn his true name, still more his relationship to Philip?

He stepped forward.

"My name is Jackson, Miss Lawrence. I am Mr. Ames' partner."

Margaret looked at him intently. Then she backed away from him.

"Jackson?" she exclaimed bitterly. "No, your name is Haggleton. You are John J. Haggleton! I know you for what you are!"

Haggleton searched in his memory. A light began to dawn upon his features, which changed from doubt to certainty, to dismay.

"You are the daughter!"—he began.

"Yes, I am the daughter of William Lawrence, the man you ruined and dishonored."

"Business made it unavoidable, Miss Lawrence."

"Business? Yes, business as you practice it!"

"Oh, now, that's going too far! I want to explain to you."

BACKACHE SIMPLY VANISHES AND OUT-OF-ORDER KIDNEYS ACT FINE.

A Few Doses Will Regulate the Kidneys and Cure the Most Severe Bladder Misery.

No man or woman here whose kidneys are out-of-order, or who suffers from backache or bladder misery can afford to leave Pope's Diuretic untreated.

After taking several doses, all pains in the back, sides or joints, rheumatic twinges, nervousness, headache, sleeplessness, inflammation or swollen eyelids, dizziness, throat or worn-out feeling and other symptoms of clogged, sluggish kidneys simply vanish.

Uncontrollable urination (especially at night), smarting, discolored water and all bladder misery ends.

This moment you suspect the slightest kidney or bladder disorder, or feel rheumatism pains, don't continue to be miserable or worried, but get a 50-cent treatment of Pope's Diuretic from your druggist and start talking as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which is so harmless or will effect so thorough and prompt a cure.

This unusual preparation goes direct to the cause of trouble, disintegrating its cleansing, healing and vitalizing influence directly upon the organs and glands affected and completes the cure before you realize it.

A few days' treatment of Pope's Diuretic means clean, healthy, active kidneys, bladder and urinary organs—and you feel fine.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pope, Thompson & Pope, of Cincinnati, is a large and responsible medicine concern, thoroughly worthy of your confidence.

Accept only Pope's Diuretic—50-cent treatment—from any drug store—anywhere in the world.

lover's paralytic.

She turned to Haggleton, scrutinized his features, then sank down in a chair.

"Oh," she cried in horror, "you are Philip's father?"

She was overwhelmed.

"Phil," she said, "when I love and whom I have promised to marry. You are his father, and you ruined mine! It is horrible!"

Haggleton waited a few moments patiently. It was wiser to let their effect on one by one for a little while in her mind than to bustle them out of it to return later perhaps with tenfold strength. He still held much in reserve. When he judged that the proper moment had come—Margaret had wiped her eyes several times and finally tucked away her handkerchief—he resumed the interview.

"Philip knows nothing of this."

"I will tell him," she said, rising. "I will warn him."

"Warn?"

"You think that this boy has inherited tendencies which you can appeal to. I'll appeal to Philip's better nature."

"Suppose you fail?"

"I cannot fail. I love him."

Haggleton sat down opposite her.

"Let me tell you something, Miss Lawrence," he said very quietly. "I am telling you because you are a woman—a good woman. But, Miss Lawrence—he raised his voice skillfully to deepen her attention—"It is astonishing how much harm is done in this world by good women."

"What do you mean?" she asked.

"I will show you what I mean right in my own life. You think it has been all hard and cruel, no love to it at all. I am seeking for money, grabbing everything in sight. But who made me that way? A woman—a splendid, high principled woman like you."

"You mean your wife?"

"Yes, my wife," in a very low voice.

"My wife," he continued, "did not approve of certain things I did in business, but instead of helping me she left me. She stole away my little boy, my son, and when she took him she took all the love out of my life. Four years old he was when—when she took him away. Such a brave little fellow! He had just had his curls cut off. He used to walk along with me and swing his little cane. Love him! Love him! What plans I made for that boy! What hopes I had for him! And when he got sick—well, never mind, but I love him! He was my son, my only son! You think that I have all I want because I have money. Money! I tell you I want my son, and you want to take him from me. I've got him, and I am going to keep him!"

Haggleton had more to say.

"Do you believe in fair play?" he asked. "Do you know why I did not tell him that I am his father? It is because Gentle said that it wasn't fair to throw my millions in the scale against his ideals."

"Gentle made you promise?"

"Yes. And I did not want to buy a son—I wanted to win his respect and love."

At this moment Gentle entered quietly. Margaret got up. The spell of Haggleton was broken.

"You have aroused Philip's admiration by your conduct of this business," she said with decision. "You can head every one to your will, but you can't bend mine."

"Gentle," said Haggleton briefly, "I have kept my word. I have not told Philip."

"You knew that he is Philip's father?" asked the girl.

"Yes, Margaret. You believe me to be Philip's friend and yours?"

"Yes, but—"

"Don't tell Philip," repeated the old diver, with increasing seriousness. And he added significantly:

"At least not until I give the word."

"I trust you, Mr. Gentle," she said slowly. "I will not tell Philip."

Then, turning full upon Haggleton, she threw down the gauntlet between them:

HAVE YOU TRIED OUR CLASSIFIED ADLETS?

UNION SUPPLY CO.

Quality Considered Prices Are Lower Than Elsewhere.

This applies to every department in each of our sixty-three general stores. We substantiate this statement daily. The best evidence is the large quantity of goods we sell, not only to people living at the coke works, but to a large number of people living in towns throughout the coke region and not employees.

Compare our Groceries and Provisions with the opposition's throughout the region. Compare the prices, compare the quality, compare the quantity we handle, and you will easily conclude that we are in a position, as very extensive dealers, to excel all competition. Our prices are lower because we buy in such large quantities. The quality is always good. Perishable goods are not kept in our stores long enough to become the least bit bad. The quantity sold at any one of our stores is as large as any opposition store—then remember we have sixty-three stores.

Clothes for the Man Who Cares

Get Into One of Our Good Overcoats. Just a Glance at Them Suggests Comfort

October '09 beats the big October '07. There's a reason. The co-operation of our two stores in buying, and the department store method of distributing maintenance expenses enables us to put better values into our clothes than can be given by an exclusive clothing house. Our general expense is divided among the various departments. The amount apportioned to clothing (or to any other department for that matter) is only a small part of what it would be if the department were run independent of the other.

This enable us to make lower prices than the exclusive store

The Main Difference Is in The Quality.

Take our $15.00 Suits for instance. Many of them are made to sell for from $17.50 to $20.00. That would not be asking too much for them—but they are in our $15.00 line. This method of "giving better values" is followed throughout the range of prices. The rapid growth of the department confirms our belief that the policy is a good one.

If you have ever worn one of our suits you know something of their character. Nothing but correctly designed and well tailored clothes gain admission to this store. They are made by tailoring establishments that stand at the head of their respective lines.
